Order No.

- 02.
1. This matter is taken up through Hybrid Arrangement (Virtual /Physical Mode).
 2. Heard learned counsel for the Petitioner, learned counsel for the informant and learned counsel for the State. Perused the F.I.R., case diary, the statement of the victim recorded under Section 164, Cr.P.C. as well as 161, Cr.P.C. and other relevant documents on record.
 3. This is an application under Section 439 of the Criminal Procedure Code.
 4. The petitioner is an accused in C.T. Case No.130 of 2020 further corresponding to S.A. No.28 of 2020 arising out of Sinapali P.S. No.142 of 2020 pending in the court of learned Additional Sessions Judge-cum-Special Court (POCSO), Nupada for commission of offence punishable under Sections 363/366/366-A/376(2)(n), I.P.C.
 5. The prosecution story, as per the F.I.R. lodged by the informant, is that the on 12.08.2020 one Motilal Majhi along with his associated attained a feast at Tankamal and halted in the night of one Madhu Majhi. It is also alleged that while they were sleeping in the house, the present petitioner kidnapped his minor sister and subsequently, he came to know that the present petitioner confined his sister in his house. It is further alleged that when they went to village to bring back his sister at that time the wife of one Motilal Majhi abused them in filthy languages and also threatened to kill them. Hence, this case.

6. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is in custody since 16.09.2020 and in the meantime, investigation has been concluded and charge-sheet has already been submitted by the Investigating Officer. Further, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the sister of the informant was love relationship with the present petitioner. As per the statement of the victim recorded under Section 164, Cr.P.C., she has categorically stated the entire incident and that they are living as husband and wife. Further, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that there is no scope for absconding or fleeing away from the hands of the justice, as the petitioner is a permanent resident of the locality.

7. As per medical examination report, there is no sign or symptom of recent sexual intercourse.

8. Learned counsel for the State, vehemently, opposes the prayer for bail of the petitioner on the ground that the alleged crime is heinous in nature. Therefore, he prays for rejection of the bail application of the petitioner. He also submits that in the event the petitioner released on bail, he might threaten / influence the prosecution witnesses particularly the victim. Further, he submits that in the event this Court is inclined to release the petitioner on bail, some stringent terms and conditions may be imposed and that he does not dispute the statement of the victim recorded under Section 164, Cr.P.C.

9. Having heard the learned counsels for the parties, considering the nature of allegation, statement of victim recorded under Section 164, Cr.P.C., materials are available on record and the period of custodial detention of the petitioner, it is directed that let the petitioner be released on bail on furnishing a bail bond of Rs.30,000/- (rupees thirty thousand) with two local solvent sureties each for the like amount to the satisfaction of the learned court in seisin over the matter subject to conditions that :-
