01. This matter is taken up through video conferencing.

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the State.

This is an application under section 438 of Cr.P.C. for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in connection with Khordha Sadar P.S. Case No. 164 of 2021 corresponding to G.R. Case No.1308 of 2021 pending in the Court of learned S.D.J.M., Khordha for the commission of the alleged offences punishable under sections 419, 420, 423, 467, 468, 471/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not been named in the F.I.R.

and basing on the statements of the co-accused persons before the police, who were taken into custody during the course of investigation, the petitioner has been falsely entangled in the case and therefore, the anticipatory bail application may be favourably considered.

Learned counsel for the State opposed the prayer for anticipatory bail.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the respective parties, the nature and gravity of accusation, while not inclining to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, it is observed that in the event the petitioner surrenders and moves for bail before the Court below within a period of four weeks, the learned Courts below shall dispose of the same expeditiously in accordance with law. The case records shall be made available to the Court concerned for disposal of the bail application.

The ABLAPL stands disposed of.
