CORAM : SANDIPKUMAR C. MORE, J.

DATE : 22nd November, 2022.

PC :

Heard rival submissions.

The respective applicants are seeking condonation of delay periods, as mentioned in all these applications, which appear to be caused due to their financial crisis. The learned AGP as well as learned Counsel for the acquiring body strongly opposed the applications on the ground that delay is not properly explained.

However, by considering the statutory right of the applicants, respective delay periods, in all these applications, stand condoned subject to the condition that the applicants shall not claim any interest for the aforesaid periods of delay.

Appeals be placed for admission after removal of office objections, if any.
