CORAM : NITIN B. SURYAWANSHI, J.
DATE : 22nd April, 2022

P C. :

1. The objection of the Petitioner/Original Defendant for exhibiting the documents produced alongwith Exhibit-78, is negatived by the Trial Court.
2. Similarly, the objection raised by the Petitioner to the relevancy of the documents, which were sought to be referred to him during cross-examination, is also rejected by the Trial Court. Hence this petition.
3. It is settled legal position that if the documents are referred to a witness during his cross-examination, the said documents have to be exhibited. At the time of final argument, the Petitioner is entitled to question the admissibility and relevancy of the said documents on the ground that the exhibited documents are not proved in accordance with law. The Trial Court will consider the said argument on merit.
