CORAM : SANDIPKUMAR C. MORE, J.
DATE : 21st DECEMBER, 2022

PER COURT :-

1. Heard rival submissions.
2. The applicants are seeking condonation of delay of 63 days. The delay appears to be caused due to their financial crisis. The learned counsel for the respondent M.S.R.T.C. strongly opposed the application on the ground that the applicants since beginning are negligent.
3. It appears that the appeal is filed in the year 2014, but it was dismissed for non-removal of office objections on 22th July, 2014. Then this Court vide order dated 17th November, 2017 had in fact set aside the aforesaid dismissal.

4. However despite that order the applicants could not remove the office objections till 07.12.2021 and again sought extension of time for the same. Thereafter, the applicants took circulation on 24.08.2022 and the notices were issued to the respondents. In view of the same, the delay of 63 days stands condoned subject to condition that, the applicants shall not claim any interest from the date of filing of this appeal till 24.08.2022 on the enhanced compensation, if granted.

5. The application is disposed of.
