2. The learned Advocate representing respondent Nos.2 and 3 submits that, considering the effect of Section 32(2)(g) of the Waqf Act, 1995, the Waqf Board has to decide the claims for Mutawalliship. Certain documentation, at the end of the petitioner, was required to be done and his instructions are that the same has been completed. The Waqf Board normally meets once in two months.

3. In view of the above and by the consent of the parties, both these petitions are disposed off, expecting the decision on the claims for Mutawalliship to be decided, on or before 15/10/2022.
