PER COURT :

Heard both the sides. Leave is granted to correct the names of the respective applicant original respondent as mentioned in prayer clause (b) in both the applications.

2. By virtue of prayer clause (c) the applicant has solicited an order to withdraw the amount with accrued interest which stands deposited by the petitioner employer in this Court.

The same course needs to be followed.

4. The Applications are allowed in terms of prayer clause (c). The applicants are allowed to withdraw the money subject to furnishing a solvent surety and undertaking that they would bring back the money in case so ordered in future.
