CORAM : S.G.DIGE, J.
DATE : 25.08.2022

P.C. :

1] Heard the learned counsel for the applicants. The learned counsel for the applicants submits that the applicants have filed First Appeal before this Court against the judgment and award passed in MACP No. 51/2014. There was office objection of paying deficit court fees of Rs.910/-. The applicants could not deposit the said deficit court fees within stipulated period, hence, registration of the First appeal is refused, hence, requested to allow the application. The learned counsel for the applicants further submits that the advocate on record could not notify the same objection due to ill health, hence, requested to restore the application.

2] Considering the submissions of the learned counsel for the applicants and reasons mentioned in the application, the order passed by the learned Registrar [Judicial] dated 28th June, 2022 is hereby quashed and set aside. Delay in filing the present Application is condoned. The applicants to deposit deficit court fees and to remove office objections within two weeks.

3] Civil Application is disposed of accordingly.
