CORAM : VINAY JOSHI, J.
DATE : 24.01.2022.

PER COURT :-

Heard.

2. This is an application seeking condonation of delay of 1952 days caused in filing the First Appeal.
3. The other side has objected to condone the delay.
4. The applicants are the original claimants who are seeking enhancement of compensation by way of appeal. The applicants have set out a cause for delay in paragraph No.6 of this application. Precisely it is contended that due to illiteracy and communication gap, they were not in a position to file appeal at the earliest. The other side has not pointed out any material to disbelieve the applicant's contention.

5. Having regard to the reasons stated in the application, the delay stands condoned however, the applicants are not entitled for interest or any other statutory benefits for delayed period.

6. The application stands disposed of.

7. Office to verify and register the appeal.
