2. It is the case that the deceased had a love marriage with the son of the applicants. The family members of the deceased were opposing the marriage. However, they performed the marriage. Unfortunately, their relations became strained and she committed suicide by excessive insulin. The suicide note is also silent as regards the role of the present applicants. The first information report itself reveals that the parents/applicants were not residing with the deceased and their son. It appears that they being the parents have been arraigned as accused.
