CORAM : NITIN JAMDAR AND
SHARMILA U. DESHMUKH, JJ.

DATE : 17 October 2022

P.C. :

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

2. The Petitioner has made various prayers. First is to direct Respondent No.1–Divisional Joint Registrar, Co-operative Societies to decide contempt petition within a period of six weeks. How the Divisional Registrar has a power under contempt jurisdiction is not demonstrated. Thereafter, directions have also sought to Respondent Nos.1 and 2 regarding preparation of statement of bank accounts, calculation of excess amount, issuance of No Dues Certificate.

3. It appears that the Petitioner is a borrower and the proceeding is pending against the Petitioner for recovery of loan. In the proceeding taken out for recovery of loan, the Authorities will have to follow the procedure laid down as per the law and this procedure would take care of the rights and contentions of the Petitioner and the Creditors. With these observations, the Writ Petition is disposed of.
