

2. Since both the appeals arise out of the same C.R., they are heard together and are being decided by a common order.

3. The appellants, in both the aforesaid appeals, seek their enlargement on bail in connection with C.R.No. 844 of 2021 registered with the Akluj Police Station, Solapur, for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 143, 147, 149, 323, 504, 506, 427, 338 of the Indian Penal Code, as well as, under Sections 3(1)(r), 3(2)(va) of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities) Act ('SC/ST Act' for short).

4. Learned Counsel for the appellants in both the aforesaid appeals states that the allegations as against the appellants are false and baseless. He submits that the appellants are in custody since 6th December, 2021 and that investigation is complete and chargesheet is filed. He submits that all the sections are bailable except the offences punishable under the SC/ST Act. He further submits that as far as allegations of caste abuses are concerned, admittedly, the appellants are not alleged to have abused the first informant in the name of his caste.

5. Learned APP does not dispute the fact that there are no allegations that the appellants hurled abuses in the name of the complainant's caste.

6. Learned Counsel appearing for the respondent No.2 states that he has instructions to appear on behalf of the respondent No.2 and that he will file his vakalatnama within one week. On merits, learned Counsel for the respondent No.2 submits that although, the appellants have not hurled abuses in the name of the complainant's caste, they have pelted stones at the respondent No.2's house direction, as a result of which, the property of the complainant and his relatives got damaged.

7. Perused the papers. It appears that the incident took place on 3rd December, 2021 at the annual fair of Siddhanath, where the respondent No.2 had gone to seek blessings. It is alleged by the respondent No.2 (original complainant) that when he was heading towards the temple, he saw that the accused No.1-Rahul Chavan (appellant No.3 in Criminal Appeal No.284 of 2022) and one Amogh Shinde were engaged in a verbal spat. On hearing the same, the respondent No.2 intervened in the said fight between Rahul and Amogh, pursuant to which, accused No. 8-Raju Bhale gave a fist blow to the respondent No.2 and abused him in the name of his caste and ran towards the temple. The respondent No.2 has further alleged that at around 7.00 p.m., other accused who were standing near the temple, came and pelted stones towards the respondent No.2's house and thereafter left in an Innova car. He submits that as a result of pelting of stones, the property of respondent No.2 and his family was damaged. The appellants are in custody since 6th December, 2021. Investigation is complete and chargesheet is filed and as such, further detention of the appellants is not warranted.
