P.C.

1. This application is filed by the Applicants praying therein to allow them to travel to Australia during the period 15.02.2022 and 12.02.2023. The appeal filed by the State against order of acquittal of the appellants is pending for consideration before this Court.

2. It appears that, this Court from time to time allowed the applications filed by the applicants permitting them to travel to abroad.

3. Since the applicants have been acquitted and the appeal against acquittal is pending and there is no adverse report from the concerned police station, and since the applicants propose to travel for one year, there is no
