CORAM: BHARATI DANGRE, J.

DATED : 10th JUNE, 2022

P.C:-

1. On expressing the propriety in granting transit bail in the wake of the fact that the subject F.I.R. is filed on 28/05/2022 and the applicant has approached this Court on 04/06/2022 when it was very well open for him to approach the competent Court in Rajasthan where the F.I.R. is registered, the learned counsel for the applicant makes a categorical statement that, he shall be approaching the competent Sessions Court in Rajasthan within whose jurisdiction the subject F.I.R. falls, on Monday i.e. 13/06/2022. The learned counsel, therefore, seeks protection till 14/06/2022.

2. Though I have already expressed to the learned counsel that the exigencies of his imminent arrest are not made out from the application, since a statement is coming from the learned counsel for the applicant that the application shall be moved before the competent Court on 13/06/2022, I am inclined to grant transit bail for a period commencing from 11/06/2022 till 14/06/2022. Hence the following order.

: ORDER :

(a) In the event of arrest in connection with C.R.No.0174 of 2022 registered with Rajnagar Police Station, District :Rajsamand, Rajasthan, applicant-Rakesh Rajendrakumar Agarwal shall be released on transit bail on furnishing P.R. bond to the extent of Rs.25,000/- with one or two sureties of the like amount for a period commencing from 11/06/2022 to 14/06/2022.

(b) The applicant shall not directly or indirectly make any inducement, threat or promise to any person acquainted with facts of case so as to dissuade him from disclosing the facts to Court or any Police Officer and should not tamper with evidence.

(c) It is made clear that I have not expressed any opinion on the merits of the matter and the competent Court shall not take grant of transit bail as a protection from arrest granted in favour of the applicant in the subject C.R.

3. The application stands disposed off in the aforestated terms.
