

was a problem between the deceased and the applicant, the applicant also contributed in the deceased taking the ultimate step.

2. There is no change in the circumstances after 18/02/2022, though learned counsel vehemently submits that the charge-sheet has been filed against other accused persons and there is no charges against him.

3. Learned A.P.P. has placed on record the statements of two independent witnesses recorded under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C., which clearly indict the applicant, to which a reference has been made, while rejecting the application in the earlier occasion.

4. Accepting that there is enough material against the applicant and the applicant is unnecessarily evading his arrest, despite his earlier application being rejected, the present application does not warrant any interference. The application is rejected.
