P.C.

1 On being confronted with the latest decision in the case of Prem Shankar Prasad v/s. The State of Bihar and Anr. in Criminal Appeal No. 1209 of 2021 observing that when once proclamation is issued against the applicant, benefit of release or protection from arrest is not available to him, learned Counsel Mr. Gole for the applicant seeks permission to withdraw the application. Mr. Gole states that he has instituted Writ Petition before this Court challenging issuance of proclamation.

2 Reserving the liberty to approach this Court after Writ Petition is decided, the present application is dismissed as withdrawn and disposed of accordingly.

3 In the wake of disposal of anticipatory bail application, Interim Application is also disposed of.
