CORAM : R.D. DHANUKA &

DATE : 2ND AUGUST, 2022.

P.C. :-

1. The interim application is not on board. By consent of parties, the interim application is taken on board.
2. By this interim application, the applicant society seeks impleadment as party respondent on the ground that the order that would be passed in favour of the petitioner, if any, would affect the members of the applicant society. Mr.Mishra, learned counsel for the petitioner vehemently opposed the interim application filed by the applicant society for impleadment. There is no merit in the objection raised by the learned counsel for the petitioner in opposing the interim application filed by the applicant relating to the subject matter in view of the fact that the order, if any, passed in favour of the petitioner would cause prejudice to the interest of members of the applicant society.

3. The interim application is made absolute in terms of prayer clause (a). The applicant shall be added as respondent no.3 within one week from today. The papers and proceedings of the writ petition shall be served upon the learned counsel for the applicant within one week from the date of carrying out amendment.
