CORAM : R.D. DHANUKA &

DATED : 21ST OCTOBER, 2022.

P.C.:-

1. These matters are placed on board for withdrawal, on a praecipe filed by learned counsel for the petitioner.

2. It is submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner has already challenged the order passed by the appellate authority in another writ petition and, thus, nothing survives in these writ petition and the interim application. Statement is accepted.

3. Writ petition and the interim application are disposed off as infructuous.

4. It is made clear that all contentions raised in the other writ petition, which is referred to in the earlier paragraph, are kept open. This Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of that writ petition.
