P. C.

. The applicant is seeking regular bail in connection with C. R. No. 15 of 2021 registered with the Yeola Police Station, Nashik (Rural) for the offence punishable under Sections 399 and 402 of the Indian Penal Code. Besides other grounds, bail is claimed on the ground of parity.

2. The State opposed bail by pointing towards seriousness of offence.

3. Police personnel while on their patrolling duty, found one car in suspicious condition. Hence, they apprehended in all six persons, who were sitting in the car. On thorough search, articles namely chopper, nylon string, iron rod and chili powder was seized and therefore, the report. There is no specific seizure from the possession of applicant. This Court on similar facts released co-accused – Prashant Shejwal in B. A. No. 2362 of 2021 and another co-accused – Pankaj Gaikwad in B. A. No. 2930 of 2021. The prosecution is unable to point out any distinguishing feature to deny the rule of parity. Investigation is complete and charge-sheet has been filed. Having regard to above facts, case is made out for grant of bail. Hence, the following order.
