2. Heard Ms. Rui Danawala, learned counsel for the Applicants and Mr. S. R. Agarkar, learned APP for the State.
3. Learned counsel for the Applicants submitted that there was cross case and in that case accused from the other party were convicted. Therefore the allegations against the Applicants cannot be true. She submitted that the Applicants were on bail during trial and they have not misused the same.
4. Learned APP conceded that the sentence imposed is very short sentence. The maximum sentence is of two months and the Appeal is not likely to be decided during that period.
5. Therefore the Applicants deserve to be released on bail.
6. Hence, the following order :

ORDER

- (i) During pendency and final disposal of the Criminal Appeal No.990 of 2022, the Applicants are directed to be released on bail on their furnishing PR. bond in the sum of Rs.30,000/- (Rupees Thirty Thousand only) each, with one or two sureties each, in the like amount.

- (ii) Interim Application stands disposed of accordingly.
