CORAM : K.R.SHRIRAM &
KAMAL KHATA, JJ.

DATE : 16th DECEMBER, 2022.

P.C. :

1. Further to the order passed on 14th December 2022, the matter was taken up today to consider the prayer clause (c) and (d) in the Interim Application. So far as, prayer clause (c) is concerned,

Ms. Irani states that Rs. 14,40,000/- would be paid in three equal monthly installments. The Court suggested because there has been outstanding since 2018 some interest will also have to be paid. Ms. Irani left it to the Court. We round off the figure outstanding as on October 2022 to be Rs. 15,00,000/-. The same shall be paid in 3 equal monthly installments of Rs. 5 Lakhs each first of which shall be paid on or before 23rd December 2022. The other two shall be paid on or before 23rd January 2023 and 23rd February 2023.

2. The amounts mentioned above to be transferred to the following account :

Name : Avantika Datwani.
A/C No. 922010042921518
Axis Bank, Branch - Bandra(W),
IFSC Code : UTIB0000028.

3. As regards prayer clause (d) is concerned, Ms. Irani states that final decision be taken by the daughter Avantika since she is a major now but at the same time states that her instructions are to inform the Court if Avantika needs anything she can directly speak to her father, i.e., respondent herein(original appellant) and he shall do whatever within his might to take care of Avantika. In view of the statement made, Mr. Thorat states that the prayer clause (d) is not being pressed. All rights and contentions of the parties including that of Avantika are kept open.

4. Ms. Irani and Mr. Thorat state that their respective clients are ready and willing to take divorce by mutual consent on the ground of irreconcilable differences. Both Counsel shall take affidavit of respective clients and file it on next date.

5. Stand over to 21st December 2022.
