On 21 September 2022, the following order was passed.

“The Family Court Appeal is already admitted. In the Civil Application for last two occasions none had appeared for the Applicant – wife. The Civil Application is taken out for enhancement of maintenance. If none appears on the next date, it will be presumed that the Applicant is not interested in pressing this Application and an appropriate order will be passed.

2. Stand over to 19 October 2022.”

2. None appears for the Applicant even though board is notified almost one week in advance. The Civil Application is dismissed for non-prosecution.
