2. The Petitioners who are working with Respondent Nos. 4 and 5 – Institution have filed this petition seeking a prayer that the approval be granted in respect of the Petitioners' transfer / placement from unaided to aided division of the school. The proposal submitted by the Respondent – Management was returned by the Education Authorities by an order dated 29 May 2019. The learned Counsel for the Respondent – Management states that in the impugned order certain shortfalls and non-compliances have been stated and the Respondent – Management is ready and willing to remove the shortfalls and non-compliances and would write to the Education Authorities accordingly within a period of three weeks. This statement is accepted.

3. After this communication so addressed by the Respondent – Management, the Education Authorities will take a decision thereupon within a period of four weeks as per law and communicate the same to the Respondent – Management as well as the Petitioners.

4. The Writ Petition is accordingly disposed of.
