office at Ballard Estate, Mumbai. The Appeal has not been served on the Official Liquidator despite the fact that it was filed in 2018.

2. The Appellants are 20 employees of Varun Global. The title of the Petition does not give their individual addresses but only mentions the registered office of Varun Global. It is impossible to give notice to the individual employees. Their whereabouts are not known and cannot be found if Petitions are filed like this.

3. The Appeal was filed through an Advocate, who has returned the papers and taken a discharge in accordance with the Rules. Even today the Appellants are absent. We have, therefore, no option but to dismiss the Appeal.

4. The Official Liquidator reports that by public notice claims were invited. Only three claims were received. However, the Appellants are at liberty to lodge their claims before the Official Liquidator provided winding up is not complete and the consideration by the Official Liquidator of such claims is still open.

5. The Appeal is dismissed.
