DATED : 4th APRIL 2022

PC.:

WRIT PETITION (L) NO.10778 OF 2021

WITH

WRIT PETITION NO.2377 OF 2021

1 Heard the counsels. Since an alternative remedy is available to petitioner, we would direct petitioner to exhaust that remedy. Mr. Pardiwalla states that the time to file an appeal has expired and, therefore, the delay be condoned. Mr. Vyas and Mr. Pinto state that the Court may pass such order as it deems fit. Mr. Pardiwalla states that the appeal will be filed within two weeks from today.

2 In view of this statement made by Mr. Pardiwalla, the time to file appeal is extended upto and including 18th April 2022.

3 The CIT (Appeals) will endeavor to dispose the appeal as well as other appeal for Assessment Year 2015-2016, which has been filed earlier, within six months from today.

4 All rights and contentions of the parties are kept open. We make it clear that we have not expressed any opinion on the merits of the matter.

5 Both petitions disposed accordingly.
