CORAM: ROHIT B. DEO, J.

DATE: 20th APRIL, 2022.

Heard at some length.

2. It would not be necessary to make any reference to the submissions of the rival parties, since the contesting parties are ad idem that the following order can be passed by consent.

3. The judgment and orders dated 03.02.2022 in Revision Applications 5/2019 4/2019 and 3/2019 are quashed, and the matter is remitted to the learned Joint Charity Commissioner.

4. Every contention raised in the petitions, and then by the respondent/s in rebuttal, is kept expressly open.

5. The Joint Charity Commissioner shall permit the revisionists to amend the memo of revision and to permit the non-applicants/respondents to file pleadings in rebuttal, and/or additional further affidavit in response as the case may be and to further permit the parties to adduce such oral and documentary evidence as the parties may deem fit.

6. The Joint Charity Commissioner shall decide the revisions in a time bound manner, and at any rate, within four months from the date of appearance of the parties.

7. The parties shall appear before the Joint Charity Commissioner on 04.05.2022. No separate notice shall be necessary.

8. Till the decision in the revisions, and for a period of ten days thereafter, the Trust shall be administered by a Judicial Officer preferably posted in the Morshi Taluka. The Principal District and Sessions Judge, Amravati shall issue such appointment order within the next ten days.

9. The Administrator shall take charge of the affairs of the Trust immediately.

10. The decisions in Change Report 148/2010, 788/2013 and 2/2017 shall remain stayed till the disposal of the revisions.

11. The petitions are disposed of.

12. Parties are act on steno copy.
