

Act, 2005, from the competent Court at Pune to the competent Court at Amravati.

4. Although the non-applicant through counsel has strongly opposed the prayer made in the present application, this Court is of the opinion that considering the facts and circumstances of the present case, the present application deserves to be allowed.

5. This is for the reason that admittedly the minor child aged about two years is living with the applicant at Amravati. The distance between Pune and Amravati is about 600 KM and the applicant does not have any independent source of income. It would be obviously inconvenient for the applicant to effectively represent herself in the divorce petition filed by the non-applicant in the Court at Pune.

6. In view of the above, the application is allowed.

7. Divorce Petition bearing No. A-9/2020, pending before the Family Court No.4, Pune, is transferred to the Family Court at Amravati. The Family Court at Pune is directed to immediately transmit the record to the Family Court at Amravati.
