CORAM : SUNIL B. SHUKRE AND ANIL L. PANSARE, JJ.

DATED : OCTOBER 21, 2022

Heard learned Counsel for the parties.

2) When this Court granted interim relief to the petitioners on 6/10/2022, the duty imposed upon the petitioners was quite clear. The petitioners were called upon to deposit an amount of rupees two crores with the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Nagpur. Instead of depositing the amount of rupees two crores with the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Nagpur, the petitioners deposited a “demand draft” of rupees two crores drawn in favour of the Reliance Asset Reconstruction Co. Ltd. with the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Nagpur. Submission of such a demand draft to the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Nagpur is no compliance with the order passed by this Court. What was to be done by the petitioners was actual deposit of amount of rupees two crores, but it was not done by the petitioners. The petitioners have taken undue advantage of the interim relief granted by this Court and, therefore, this petition stands dismissed. However, liberty is granted to the petitioners to approach the Debts Recovery Tribunal, Nagpur, keeping all the questions open.
