1. None for the petitioner and the respondents. This was the position on 21-4-2022 and 7-9-2022. It was thought that the petitioner, by long absence before this Court, may have shown his disinterestedness in prosecuting this petition and, therefore, this petition was directed to be kept for dismissal today.
2. The apprehension expressed by this Court has turned out to be true. Today, again nobody is present for the petitioner and the respondents.
3. The petition stands dismissed for want of prosecution.
