The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Section 379 of IPC r/w 21(1) of the Tamilnadu Mines & Minerals (Development & Regulation) Act, 1957 in Crime No.659 of 2021, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the respondent police on receiving an information from the informer conducted inspection near Sadaikkampatti Petrol Pump and found that the one unit of canal sand was transporting without any valid permission and hence the driver of the tractor and trailer was arrested and a case was registered against the petitioner as well since he being the owner of the vehicle. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner illegally transported 1 unit of canal sand without permission. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is directed to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days after lifting of lockdown or the commencement of the Court's normal functioning whichever is earlier, before the learned Principal District and Sessions Judge, Perambalur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
