2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Counsel appearing for the respondent.

3. The petitioner was working as Special Grade Driver under the respondent Transport Corporation and he retired from service on attaining the age of superannuation on 31.07.2019. However, the respondent has settled the retirement benefits to the petitioner only on 25.01.2021, without any interest. 4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that, the respondent has settled the retirement benefits to the petitioner belatedly. Despite the petitioner made a representation dated 26.08.2021 to the concerned Authorities to pay the interest for the belated payment of retirement benefits, the respondent did not pay same. Hence, the respondent may be directed to pay interest for the belated payment of retirement benefits.

He also relied upon the order passed by this court in W.P.No.468 of 2022 dated 19.01.2021, wherein, this court has directed the respondent Corporation to pay interest at the rate of 4% p.a. Hence, he submitted that, on the same line, the petitioner is entitled for interest only at the rate of 4% per annum for the belated payment.

6. In view of the above submissions and with the consent of both the parties, there shall be a direction to the respondent to pay penal interest at the rate of 4% per annum for the belated payment of retirement benefits to the petitioner, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, subject to the condition that if the petitioner has not already given up his right for claiming interest for the retirement benefits. It is also made clear that in default, the respondent-Corporation shall have to pay the interest amount at the rate of 6% per annum to the petitioner.

7. With the above directions, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
