ORDER

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 408, 420, r/w 34 and 109 of I.P.C, in Crime No.40 of 2021, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is working as an employee in the defacto complainant's grocery shop. It is alleged that A1 misappropriated a sum of Rs. 1 crore from the defacto complainant's shop. The main allegation against the petitioner is that most of the misappropriated amount was deposited in the petitioner's account. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. The learned counsel, on instructions, would further submit that the petitioner, without prejudice to his rights, is ready to deposit the amount of Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Lakhs Only) to the credit of the crime number. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail stating that more about 1.5 crores was involved and further submitted that co-accused enlarged on bail.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering that co-accused enlarged on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. (d)the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e)the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;
