O R D E R

The petitioners, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324,341,506(i) of IPC in Crime No.3 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 12.12.2021 one Sagadevan was standing near at Basanapalli bus stop, while at that time some unknown persons came and asked him to give money, due to that quarrel arose between them, on knowing the same the defacto complainant and his friend Venkatesan went there, but no one found and the defacto complainant went to the 1st petitioner's shop who is running Kabab shop near at the Basanpalli bus stop and informed him that due to running of his shop alone there was a problem arose with bi-standers and informed him that he is going to give complaint before the police station. Hence this complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there is some wordy quarrel between the petitioners and some other persons. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are directed to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days after lifting of lockdown or the commencement of the Court's normal functioning whichever is earlier, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Denkanikottai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners are directed to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) [each Rs.5000/-] to the credit of the Crime No.3 of 2022 and the victim is permitted to withdraw the amount within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and shall produce the said receipt before the Court below.

[b] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[c] the petitioners are directed to report before the respondent police on every Saturday at 10.30 a.m., until further orders;

[d] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[e] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[f] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
