When the matter came up for hearing on 20.01.2023, this Court specifically directed the District Collector to file a status report and inform this Court about the developments that took place after 29.08.2022. The learned Additional Advocate General appearing on behalf of the District Collector made his submissions on all the earlier events that took place. This Court is aware about all those events and what is important is to place before this Court the events that took place after 29.08.2022.

2. The learned Additional Advocate General seeks for some time to enable the District Collector to file a status report along with the relevant documents. Post this case under the same caption on 24.03.2023.
