

CMP.Nos.4302 and 4305 of 2022

in

O.SA.No.70 of 2018

WEB COPY

M.DURAIWAMY, J.

and

T.V THAMILSELVI, J.

The learned counsel appearing for the respondents has no objection for ordering the petitions.

2. Further, being satisfied with the reasons stated in the affidavits filed in support of the petitions, the petitions are ordered.

3. The Registry is directed to carry out the amendment in the papers.

[M.D.,J.] [T.V.T.S.,J.]

28.03.2022

mrn