ORDER

Read this in order in conjunction with order dated 24.02.2022 reading as follows:-

"The status of the petitioner as NRI Candidate is not in dispute. The only dispute that is raised is there is no sponsorship certificate furnished by either the parent or by the guardian as required under 3(d) of the prospectus.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner would now state that the father has sufficient financial capability has been acquired post the last date for submission of applications. Furthermore, the certification from the Consulate has also not been enclosed with the application form.

3. In such circumstances, learned Special Government Pleader would seek a few days to verify whether the authorities would be inclined to accept the sponsorship as well as the certification at this point in time.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner points out that there were 43 vacant seats as on 07.02.2022, when the writ petition was filed. It would thus also be in the interests of the respondents to admit the candidate, he would state.

5. List on 03.03.2022 to enable the learned Special Government Pleader to obtain instructions in this regard.

2. Pursuant thereto the petitioner is stated to have appeared for counselling.

3. Today written instructions are circulated by Mr.Jayaprakash reading as follows:-
