C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

All these three applications have been filed seeking to condone the delay of 864 days in filing the Cross Appeals in C.M.A.Nos.1948, 1949 & 1950 of 2017 respectively.

2.The aforementioned Civil Miscellaneous Appeals have been filed by the respondent before the Tribunal, questioning the quantum and also on facts, the award of the Tribunal / Special District Court, Dharmapuri dated 15.12.2015. The claimant before the said Court had filed Cross-Objections and since there was a delay, the present applications had been filed.

3.In the affidavit filed in support of the said applications, it had been stated that an advise was given belatedly that it would be appropriate to file Cross-Objections as the Tribunal had failed to grant compensation on certain heads.

4.The delay is condoned, subject to condition that if at all, the Cross-Objections are considered after final hearing, the petitioner would not be entitled to claim interest for 864 days.
