With the consent of both the parties, this case is taken up for settlement before this Lok Adalat. Both the parties are present. Mr. M.B.Raghavan, learned counsel for appellant and Mr.C.Prabhakaran and Mr.M.Sivakumar learned counsel for the first respondent, who have also filed vakalat today and Mrs.G.Baby (Legal Officer for the first Respondent) are present. With regard to the second respondent, he is not pressing this appeal. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter.

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.6,35,421/- with interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit of the award amount. Aggrieved by the said award, the appellant has preferred the present appeal.

2. After due deliberation and consultation, both the parties have agreed for an amount of Rs.5,80,000/- (Five Lakhs and Eighty Thousand Only) with interest at 7.5% towards full and final settlement of all claims of the respondent.

3.The Appellant/ Insurance Company is directed to deposit the above said amount of Rs.5,80,000/-with interest at the rate of 7.5% per annum from the date of petition till the date of deposit of the award amount after deducting the amount already deposited, if any, within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this award. On such deposit, the claimant is permitted to withdraw the modified award amount, less the amount already withdrawn by him, without filing any formal petition. Award is modified accordingly.

4. Accordingly, the Tribunal is directed to transfer the amount through RTGS/NEFT to the parties on proper identification in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal petition. The Award is passed accordingly.
