COMMON ORDER

When the matters were taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate appearing for the first respondent submitted the copy of the notification, in which it has been stated that all the extensions have been given to the petitioner. On 31.07.2013, the petitioner had attained the age of superannuation. Hence nothing survives in this writ petition for further adjudication.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has also made an endorsement in the bundle stating that the matters have become infructuous.

W.P.Nos.25002 & 22214 of 2013

3. Recording the above said submission and endorsement, both the writ petitions are dismissed as infructuous. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
