Dr.G.JAYACHANDRAN. J,

This bail petition is filed by the petitioner/A2, who was arrested for the alleged offence under Section 406, 420, 465, 468 and 34 of IPC. The perusal of the F.I.R indicates that the defacto complainant posing herself as agent to procure Government jobs, has collected money from several persons and given to the petitioner herein. Since the job could not be procured, she has come forward to lodge the complaint.

2. Reading of the F.I.R indicates that the defacto complainant an accomplice to the crime and the complaint itself is admission of the crime. The respondent police first ought to have arrested the defacto complainant and thereafter, based on her statement, should have proceeded against others. Therefore, this Court while dismissing this bail petition, direct the respondent police to arrest the defacto complainant for her involvement of collecting money from the gullible job seekers promising them to get Government placement. With this observation, this Criminal Original Petition for bail is dismissed. The connected intervening petition is closed.
