O R D E R

This writ petition has been filed forbearing the respondent from interfering with the civil contractual dispute with the purchasers of flat in Deepa Paradise at Door No.112, Aadhanur Village, Sriperambadur Taluk, Kancheepuram District.

2 . When the matter is taken up today, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner is a builder who has constructed the flats at the above premises, there is a dispute between the petitioner and the purchasers in respect of defective constructions and deficiency of services. Pursuant to the same, there were constant quarrel between them. Finding that the dispute between the parties are civil in nature, the respondent has not interfered in the dispute. However, in the event of the situation becoming worse and in the event of breach of law and order, the first respondent has every right to interfere and to conduct enquiry and register a case, if necessary. He would further submit that based on the complaint, the respondent is conducting enquiry and the petitioner is not cooperating for the enquiry.

3. Heard both sides.

4. The first respondent/police has no right to interfere in the civil and contractual disputes. However, in the event of dispute escalating into an act of violence and breach of peace, the police has to obviously interfere and exercise their authority.

5. Recording the same, the Writ Petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
