

4. The learned counsel for the petitioner states that the petitioner herein was not aware of the pendency of this case and he was regularly attending Court for other cases pending before the Courts within the same campus. Therefore, he never had intention of absconding and therefore he may be released on bail on some conditions.

5. Perusal of the lower Court order indicates that the petitioner is facing 5 cases of similar nature and 2 other cases triable by Sessions Court. Due to his non appearance for the past 5 years, there is no progress in the present case. Therefore, the court below has considered that the release of the petitioner herein may lead to abscondance and further delay. This Court has no second opinion in this regard. Hence, this Criminal Original Petition for bail is dismissed. Further, the dismissal of this bail petition will not stand in the way of the petitioner to revive his plea before the trial Court which will be in a position to assess the conduct of the petitioner and his availability for trial in future, if he is released on bail.
