These petitions have been filed seeking an order of interim stay to stall the proceedings of the 2nd respondent and an order of interim injunction to restrain the respondents from interfering with the possession of the petitioner's property.

The petitioner being an occupier of the 'Battai Poromboke' land, had made an application for issuance of patta and the said application was rejected vide the present impugned order on the ground that the subject land is the high value land with a large extent of 0.16.92 hectares and the same would be helpful for the Government to utilize for future purpose and on further, ground that the petitioner is a Government Servant and not a landless poor.

In view of the revenue standing order, the interim relief sought for in these petitions cannot be granted. Accordingly, these petitions filed for grant of interim relief are dismissed.
