KRISHNAN RAMASAMY.J.,

When these applications are taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the defendant would submit that his client will not alienate the suit property till the disposal of the suit. Upon noticing the same, the learned counsel for the plaintiff has reported no objection to close these applications filed by him. The learned counsel for the defendant also reported no objection to record his submission that his client will not alienate the suit property, till the disposal of the suit and close all the applications filed by the defendant.

2. Recording the submission made by the learned counsel for both parties, these applications are closed. The defendant is directed not to alienate the suit property till the disposal of the suit as undertaken by him.
