This Application coming on this day before this court for hearing the court made the following order:

This application has been filed by the applicant/petitioner to permit him to file additional documents in the above Original Petition.

2 The applicant is father and the respondent is mother. The original petition has been filed by the father for custody of the minor child in the year 2019. Now the applicant/father has filed this application to permit him to file additional documents related to the year 1985, 1996, 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2018. Even though the said documents were existing prior to filing of the main Original Petition, the applicant/father had not filed these documents along with the main Original Petition and he has not given any adequate reasons as to why the copies of these documents were not filed along with the main Original Petition. Further the main Original Petition is only for the custody of the minor child. Since the applicant is father and the respondent is mother, they both are natural and legal guardians and in order to get exclusive custody of the minor child, one of the parents has to establish in what way, the other parent is not fit to have the custody of the minor child. The interest and welfare of the minor child is the only paramount consideration to decide the main Original Petition and to deduce the main Original Petition, these documents are not necessary and according to this Court, this is nothing but, futile exercise. Therefore, even though the respondent has no objection, this Court is not inclined to allow this petition.

3 Accordingly, this application is dismissed.
