... Respondents

Prayer:- Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, 1950, praying to issue a Writ of Certiorari, calling for the records of the Second Respondent in his proceedings bearing Memo.No.016449/804/F.1/F12/2016-9 dated 29.04.2016 and quash the same.

For Petitioner : Mr.G.Ilamurugu

For Respondents : Mr.P.Subramanian

O R D E R

Heard Mr.G.Ilamurugu, Learned Counsel for the Petitioner and Mr.P.Subramanian, Learned Counsel appearing for the Respondents and perused the materials placed on record, apart from the pleadings of the parties.

2. The Petitioner, who was working as Junior Auditor in the Corporation of the First and Respondent, was sanctioned two advance increments for having passed B.Com. degree (double degree) through Annamalai University. The Second Respondent has issued show cause notice in Memo No. 016449/804/ F.1/F.12/2016-9 dated 29.04.2016 to the Petitioner calling upon him to submit his explanation as to why the payments towards two advance increments improperly sanctioned earlier should not be recovered, which is challenged in this Writ Petition.

3. This Court, at the time of admission on 02.08.2016, had passed an order of interim stay, which continues to be in force till date.

4. The consistent legal position has been reiterated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Union of India -vs- Kunisetty Satyanarayana [(2006) 12 SCC 28] that a charge memo or show cause notice cannot be challenged before the completion of enquiry and the proceedings cannot be interdicted till it reaches its logical conclusion. It would be useful here to extract the relevant passages from the said decision which read as follows:-

"13. It is well settled by a series of decisions of this Court that ordinarily no writ lies against a charge sheet or show-cause notice vide Executive Engineer, Bihar State Housing Board -vs- Ramdesh Kumar Singh [JT 1995 (8) SC 331], Special Director -vs- Mohd. Ghulam Ghouse (AIR 2004 SC 1467), Ulagaappa -vs- Divisional Commissioner, Mysore [2001(10) SCC 639], State of U.P. -vs- Brahm Datt Sharma (AIR 1987 SC 943) etc.

14. The reason why ordinarily a writ petition should not be entertained against a mere show-cause notice or charge-sheet is that at that stage the writ petition may be held to be premature. A mere charge-sheet or show-cause notice does not give rise to any cause of action, because it does not amount to an adverse order which affects the rights of any party unless the same has been issued by a person having no jurisdiction to do so. It is quite possible that after considering the reply to the show-cause notice or after holding an enquiry the authority concerned may drop the proceedings and/or hold that the charges are not established. It is well settled that a writ lies when some right of any party is infringed. A mere show-cause notice or charge-sheet does not infringe the right of any one. It is only when a final order imposing some punishment or otherwise adversely affecting a party is passed, that the said party can be said to have any grievance.

15. Writ jurisdiction is discretionary jurisdiction and hence such discretion under Article 226 should not ordinarily be exercised by quashing a show-cause notice or charge sheet.

16. No doubt, in some very rare and exceptional cases the High Court can quash a charge-sheet or show-cause notice if it is found to be wholly without jurisdiction or for some other reason if it is wholly illegal. However, ordinarily the High Court should not interfere in such a matter."

Having due regard to the aforesaid legal position, as there is nothing which precludes the Petitioner from raising the contentions in this Writ Petition in the reply to be submitted to the Second Respondent, who is bound to deal with the same before coming to any ultimate conclusion, there is no necessity for the Court to interfere at this pre-mature stage of the matter.

5. In such circumstances, the Court is inclined to pass the following order:-

(i) it shall be incumbent upon the Petitioner to submit his explanation to the show cause notice, which is impugned in the Writ Petition, if not done already, to the concerned authority by 31.07.2022;

(ii) in the event of not being satisfied with the explanation submitted by the Petitioner, an enquiry shall be conducted following the prescribed procedure after affording full opportunity of personal hearing to the Petitioner to explain his position in that regard and a reasoned order shall be passed dealing with each of the contentions raised on merits and in accordance with law and the decision taken communicated under written acknowledgment; and

(iii) if any adverse decision is taken, the Petitioner may pursue legal remedies in accordance with law and no view has been expressed by the Court on the merits of the controversy involved in the matter.

In fine, the Writ Petition is disposed on the aforesaid terms. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed. No costs.
