3. Heard the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent police and perused the materials available on record.

4. At the outset, this Court is of the view, such a protection cannot be granted particularly, when there is rivalry claim by the other side. The practice of granting the blanket police protection leads to serious consequences. In this aspect, the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of 'PR.Muralidharan and others Vs. Swami Dharmananda Theertha Padar' reported in 2006 4 SCC as held as follows:

'...19.A Writ for "Police Protection" so-called, has only a limited scope, as when the Court is approached for protection of rights declared by a decree or by an order passed by a civil Court. It cannot be extended to cases where rights have not been determined either finally by the civil Court or, at least at an interlocutory stage in an unambiguous manner, and then too in furtherance of the decree or order.'

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed and if so advised, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the Civil Court to workout his remedy.
