The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 353 and 506(i) IPC in Crime No.123 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working as a Teacher, where the son of the petitioner/A.2 is studying. There was a quarrel between two students and when the defacto complainant tried to intervene and compromise the issue, the petitioner/A.2 along with A.1 have alleged to have abused the defacto complainant in a filthy language.

3. Considering the nature of the offence, this Court is of the considered view that custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not necessary and accordingly, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to certain conditions.

4. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of seven days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Denkanikottai, Krishnagiri Distirct on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/-only (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand Only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:

(a)the petitioner and the sureties shall affix his photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b)the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(c)the petitioner shall report before the Investigating Officer daily at 10.30 a.m until further orders.

(d)the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(e) on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate
