4. Heard Mr.S.Vinoth Kumar, learned Government Advocate (crl.side) appearing for the respondent and perused the material records of the case.

5. It is seen that the application for discharge has been dismissed by the Trial Court by taking into account the incriminating materials filed along with the final report and list of witnesses and their statements under Section 161 of Cr.P.C., which implicates all the petitioners. Therefore, when there are prima facie materials, to proceed against the petitioners under Section 498A and Section 306 of IPC, the Trial Court has rightly dismissed the discharge application and this revision is filed without any merits and as such, the Criminal Revision is dismissed. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
