

Crl.M.P.No.7127 of 2022

in

Crl.RC.No.679 of 2022

D.BHARATHA CHAKRAVARTHY,J.

It is seen that in spite of the earlier direction of this Court, the petitioner has not surrendered.

Therefore, the suspension of sentence petition is dismissed.

It will be open for the respondent / complainant to approach the Trial Court and the Trial Court can issue / execute a warrant and commit the petitioner to jail to undergo sentence.

18.07.2022
(2/2)

drm